

Kids on the Grow

21st Century Grant

"Kids on the Grow" provides quality academic and enrichment classes to all students of Thomas Jefferson Elementary School.

The program runs 3:00 - 5:00
Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday
Session 2, December 6 - January 18
(not Dec. 23 - Jan. 2)

We will try to give your child the classes chosen, however, there will be many changes made in their class selections. Priority will be given to students who are referred by their teachers.

If your child was chosen to participate in Reading Together please check those boxes.

Please note that the classes are for specific grades. The classroom teachers have referred some students to Math Achievers, and Homework Help. Please take advantage of these classes if your form has a referral letter attached or if you think these classes would benefit your child.

A note must be sent to authorize changes in the after school transportation plan and/or attendance. Or call Theresa O'Brien at 261-0180.

These classes fill very quickly. Please turn your registration in as soon as possible.

Math Achievers - (3-5). This is a class to improve your math skills. It is only for students that are referred by their teacher.

Homework Help - (3-5). Would you like to get your homework done before you go home? Get help with your homework and you might!

Dance Team - (3-5). Mrs. Steele is looking forward to teaching the Dance Team new routines!

Snowshoeing and Health - (1-2 and 3-5). We will snow shoe outside, weather permitting. There will also be a health lesson included each day.

DDR and Health - (1-2 and 3-5). Play DDR, Wii, K-nex, and Legos plus receive a health lesson each day.

Reader's Theater - (3 and 4). Have fun acting and videotaping fun plays.

Computer Kids - (1-2). Use the teachers' websites to learn while having fun.

Board Games - (1-2). Play several different board games with classmates.

Crafts - (1-2). You will have fun making many different crafts.

Spanish and Foods - (1-3). Learn the Spanish language and taste their food. The younger a student learns a foreign language, the better.
